I had purchased some Nuby sipping cups from a local Wal-Mart here in Milpitas, Ca a month ago. My daughter really took to the cups so I wanted to purchase more. And my friends would like to purchase some as well. The Wal-Mart is no longer carrying them and I can't seem to find them in any other stores. Can you tell me where I can purchase them? I'm willing to travel a 50 mile radius within the San Francisco – San Jose area. Or can I mail order them? I wasn't able to locate them on your web site.

I purchased a Nuby valveless No-Spill Soft Spout Gripper Cup at Wal-Mart a few weeks ago, and I liked it a lot. I went back to the store and there were no more, and I can't find them anywhere. I can't even find them on your website (UPC 0-48526-91607-8.) Please advise me of where I may purchase more of these great cups.

Thank you,

To whom it may concern-

I recently cleaned K-Mart in Dundas, Minnesota out of all their Nuby No-Spill Cup (with NEW valveless No-Spill Soft Silicone spout). I originally purchased one returned to pick-up another 2, and then again returned and bought the last 5 they had. I have one that remains unopen that bears the UPC# of 0-48526-00890-2. I have not found anywhere to purchase on-line nor have I found them in any other store including other K-Marts. The K-Mart in Dundas, has not received any more shipments nor can promise any more. I am interested in purchasing several more. If you can help me with this matter or have any information could you please e-mail me at peggisiouxc@msn.com

Thank You for your time-
Sincerely, Peggi Cortelli
